

L.O. Can I put these sentences in the correct order?

7. Most of London was destroyed.

8. London was rebuilt using brick material.

The fire finally began to go out after four days.

The fire breaks were too close to the fire and did not work.

1. The Great Fire of London started on September 2nd 1666.

The fires spread very quickly because the houses were made out of wood.

2. It began in a baker's shop in Pudding Lane.

Many people escaped to the river for safety.