

English Task Monday 8th February

Starter - Warm your brains up!

Task 1 - Add in the punctuation and correct the spellings. We will go through this on Tuesday in the live lesson.

C x 3 . x 3 , x 2 Sp x 3

the houses were big and red they were realy big whith smoke coming from them the girl who was happy and tired stud in the snow

Task 2 - Improve these word choices:

red _____ big _____ happy _____ tired _____

Task 3 - Improve 1 sentence openers. Rewrite the sentence you are improving the opener of on the line below. Could you use a fronted adverbial followed by a comma? A subordinate conjunction (I SAW A WABUB)? A preposition (In the distance..., Near..., In front of...)?

Main Task - 100 Word Challenge!

Use the picture below called 'Tundra Town' as inspiration for your 100-word challenge. Remember the challenge is to try and get exactly 100 words! It can be a story, a description, a poem, a newspaper, a recount, a diary, a letter etc. Use your imagination and be creative!

We have been looking at a range of different ways to write sentences including different openers and descriptive devices during our live lessons when we get our brains going. Use all the things you have been practising in these sessions and show of what you can do!

You could use:

- MAPOS (metaphors, alliteration, personification, onomatopoeia and similes)
- Expanded noun phrases (2 adjectives in a list separated by a comma)
- Fronted adverbials followed by a comma (Calmly, ... Soon, ... In the blink of an eye, ...)
- Subordinate conjunctions (I SAW A WABUB) Remember your comma if you start a sentence with a subordinate conjunction to mark the end of the clause.
- Relative clause (who, which, that, whose) Remember your commas.
- Short sentences to build suspense

Remember to reread your work while you are writing to check it makes sense and is punctuated.

Tundra Town

Optional Task

Can you design your own house that would be suitable to be built in a very snowy place?

Think about a name for your house, and the materials you need to build it. You could label the picture, and even produce a poster or leaflet telling people about it.
