

Read the extracts I have cut from the book. Underline the detail you will need to draw your picture.

Using the extracts from the book, draw a detailed picture of the place where Ruby is now going to live. (You can use colouring pencils, paint, felt tips or any other medium you want.)

Read each extract and make sure your picture includes that detail from each. Tick each piece of detail from the text when you have drawn it on your picture.

Extension and research.

Find as many pictures as you can of the mountains and villages of Himachal Pradesh in the Durga Mountains in the Himalayas, Northern India.
