

Story starter!

A low growl could be heard; a rumble that came from deep within the predator like a distant storm approaching.

With milky grey eyes like miniature moons, the cat began to prowl stealthily out of the tall grass...

Can you continue

Task:

Continue to write the story. Use extended sentences to add detail when describing this predator.

Can we extend these sentences to add more detail?

The deer suddenly looked up.

A loud noise startled the deer.

The cat had intense grey eyes.

It was very early in the morning.