

Look at the words which I have stolen from Chapter 10.

foothills- a place at the bottom of mountains horizon - the place where the land and sky meet jagged - rough and spiky snow tipped - snow at the top rickshaw - bicycle carrying people abandoned - deserted- left alone dishevelled -very untidy and scruffy neglected - not looked after mildew -damp, moldy tattered - worn out and frayed cracks running down the stone walls spring - water coming from the ground bolder - large round rock rumbling echos-
territory- marked out place terrain- land

Don't forget to use the text and pictures you drew yesterday to help you. Paint a picture using words!

Bronze:

Write a description of Ruby's new home in the foothills of the Hymalayas using some of the words above. Start your sentences with a capital letter and end with a full stop.

Silver/Gold

Find out the meanings of the words and then find synonyms for these words.

Write a paragraph to describe Ruby's new home in the foothills of the Hymalayas using some of the words above.

Start some of your sentences using a fronted adverbial (use your word mat) and also with a capital letter. End all sentences with a full stop.

Challenge: Can you also find antonyms for some of the words above?
