

What thoughts and feelings do you (as Ruby) have during these moments? As I read through the text jot down what you think Ruby might be feeling and thinking at each point in the story.
(Once the lesson is finished you can use the text to finish this activity.)

1. Chat with dad about why we left.

2. I write mum a note then rip it up.

3. Dad nearly catches us with the baby kangaroo.

4. I imagine Mum with Joey.
