

You may want to cut your picture out and stick it in the middle of your page.

Dot down around your picture, any adjectives, adverbs, any adjectival phrases that come to mind.

Dot down some who, what, where, why, how questions about the scene.

What story can you come up with to explain the door?

Can I use engaging and imaginative language?

Bronze

Complete the paragraph using effective adjectives.

Silver

Complete the paragraph using effective adjectives and powerful verbs.

Gold

Complete the paragraph using effective adjectives, adverbs and powerful verbs. Include an example of an apostrophe.

The Door

Billy had always been curious, so when he saw the door in the hillside, he turned the handle. It creaked open. Inside, he found himself in another world.....

Adjectives are words that we put in front of a noun to describe it (the rough, knarled door.)

Verbs are doing words and adverbs describe how the verb is done. (slowly climbing)